PREAMBLE

The Office of the Registrar provides document services to support the endeavours and career advancement of students and alumni. This document details how one may access these services and the costs associated with them. Specifically, it contains information about the cost for processing and dispatching transcripts, status letters and other verification documents. Please note that in many cases, the cost of each service is a combination of processing and dispatch costs. Additional charges apply for express processing times.

This document also deals briefly with examination fees and addresses applicable fees for deferred applications.

Deposits to the previously listed National Commercial Bank Jamaica Limited (NCB) account using a USD Bank Draft of a Cashier's Cheque, in favour of Norman Manley Law School, drawn on specific overseas banks are other accepted forms of payment.

Our bankers have advised that they accept Cashier's Cheques that are drawn on the following overseas banks:

- Bank of New York
- Bank of America
- JP Chase Morgan
- Barclays Bank
- Citibank

- Toronto Dominion Bank

NCB may make changes to this listing of overseas bankers without notice.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Incomplete or inconsistent student records may lead to:

- An increase in processing time and dispatch delays
- Services being suspended or cancelled where anomalies cannot be appropriately resolved.

Status Documents

Requests for programme details or financial information may attract an additional fee.

Verification of Documentation

The copies of the Individual Grade Notification sheet will bear the date of issue of the replacement and not that of the original.

Certification of Authenticity of the Legal Education Certificate (LEC)

Individuals requiring certification of the authenticity of their LEC are required to present the original document along with a true to size, copy of the LEC certificate at the point of submission of the request form.

Certification of Students' Record/Certificate

In the event of loss or significant damage to a Legal Education Certificate, the certificate cannot be replaced. The Law School can however issue a letter to the candidate confirming his/her receipt of the award.

The LEC Replacement letter will bear the:

- name of the awardee and date of the award as it appeared on the original certificate.
- seal of the Council of Legal Education
- signature of the sitting Registrar

Transcripts

The complete transcript of the LLB granting institution must be on file for the production of an NMLS transcript. Transcripts for Year I students can only be produced following the publication of Year I examination results. Transcripts must be requested using the CLE STUDENT-ALUM RECORD REQUEST Form. Request forms are available on the school's website or Reception Desk at the Ring Road and Gibraltar Hall Road buildings. Transcripts addressed to institutions will bear the embossed seal and are sent with a cover letter. A copy of this cover letter is mailed to the requestor.

A Student Copy transcript may be requested for personal use. This will bear the "STUDENT COPY" stamp and the NMLS inked seal. No letter will accompany this transcript.

EXAMINATIONS

Overseas Supplementary Examinations
