COMMITMENT

I understand that:

- Only three students will be selected to represent Norman Manley Law School
- Participation requires intensive preparation alongside my regular coursework
- I must attend all preparation sessions coordinated by the coach
- I remain fully responsible for all my academic obligations, including classes, assignments, clinics, tutorials/seminars and any other coursework requirements, and that taking part in the clinic will not excuse me from meeting them or from any deadline
- I must manage my time so that my academic performance does not suffer
- I am committing to represent the school professionally and with excellence

I confirm that the information given on this form is true and complete, and that the written submissions I have attached are my own work.
